2. [REDACTED] Jack Leahy, State Department, indicated that the House Commerce Committee has asked FCC Commissioner T. A. M. Craven to testify on the proposed amendments to the Communications Act involving reciprocity with foreign nations and the establishment of low-power radio transmitters. Leahy has suggested to the Department that they meet with Craven before the hearings on Thursday to discuss his testimony. Leahy asked if we would like to have a representative present. I thanked him for the invitation and declined.

3. [REDACTED] in view of his interest in the application of [REDACTED] I advised William Saltonstall, in the office of Senator Leverett Saltonstall (R., Mass.), that [REDACTED] was in process for a GS-6 position, that his 1959 clearance was being up-dated, but that his final appointment was subject to further processing and interviews. Saltonstall said he understood and appreciated this information.
